

Challenge statement – The requirement to provide cost effective decontamination and waste reduction methods.

Waste minimisation and correct segregation are key deliverables in reducing the cost of removing waste from active areas. Sellafield Ltd is seeking processes and technologies to decontaminate facilities with a particular emphasis on:

- Portable decontamination technologies
- Remote deployable technologies
- Novel decontamination processes that can be used to decontaminate concrete, plastics, pipelines and vessels